

Virginia Commonwealth University Student Centers Richmond, Virginia

Virginia Green is the Commonwealth of Virginia's campaign to promote environmentally-friendly practices in all aspects of Virginia's tourism industry. Virginia Green has established "core activities" specific to each sector of tourism, and these practices are considered the required minimum for participation in the program. However, Virginia Green encourages its participants to reduce their environmental impacts in all aspects of their operations; and this profile provides a full list of all their "green" activities. These are the activities that guests / customers can expect to find when they visit this facility.

VCU Student Centers

VCU University Student Commons and Activities (USC&A) serves as a center for activities, services, meetings, events and the social life of the University community, including students, faculty, staff, alumni, and their guests. University Student Commons & Activities manages three student centers on the VCU campuses – the University Student Commons on the Monroe Park campus and the Hunton Student Center on the MCV campus.

Green Statement: "Initiated by the Commonwealth and the University, the University Student Commons and Activities department and each of our student centers are actively and aggressively pursuing, whenever realistic and plausible, embracing the "Green" concept and conservation efforts."

CORE ACTIVITIES for Conference Centers

"☑" This symbol indicates a required activity for Virginia Green Conference Centers. Participants self-certify that these activities are in place and they provide additional specifics on other activities. Visitors to VCU Student Centers can expect the following practices:

- ☑ Recycling and Waste Reduction. All conference centers must provide for recycling at their events. Aluminum can and plastic bottle recycling are a must. Recycling of steel cans, cardboard, office paper, and composting of waste foods are encouraged as well. This facility pledges that they:
